ART: What Thou EAT: CHANGING FOODWAYS AND INNOVATIVE ART

An illustrated talk presented by Linda Weintraub: artist, author, curator, educator.

William J. McCloskey, Wrapped Oranges, 1889

Why does art change? Why do artists overturn cherished art traditions? By presenting images of food in American art from 1850 to the present, this illustrated talk correlates radical innovations in art with the dramatic changes in strategies for producing, distributing, and consuming food.

Andy Warhol, Campbell's Soup Cans, 1962
